

ALEXANDRIA.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 5.

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Special Correspondence of the Alex. Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 5, 1887.

A Virginia democrat here to day, who was at the headquarters of the democratic State committee in Alexandria yesterday, says it is estimated that the democratic majority on joint ballot in the next Virginia legislature will be about fifty or twenty, and that they will have a majority in both houses. He says every thing seems to be in good working order at the headquarters, and business moving along smoothly.

Mr. Frank Hume, who has declined numerous and urgent requests to accept the democratic nomination for the Virginia legislature for Alexandria city and county, in a short talk with the GAZETTE's correspondent to-day, said he had no fear of the democratic losing Alexandria, and had no doubt that if Judge Stuart would accept the nomination he would be elected by a satisfactory majority. Capt. William Gary, an old Alexandria democrat (Cooney it used to be called) democrat, says some of the democrats there have been a little cool towards the Judge because he couldn't make the legislature do for them all they wanted, but that the majority of them will vote to nominate him, and that if nominated he will be elected.

A member of Tammany, here to day, says the report that Governor Hill, of New York, and President Cleveland have formed an alliance has no foundation in fact, and that the Governor has his weather eye wide open, and is ready to take every advantage the future may offer.

The new lessees of the National Hotel made a formal demand upon the old lessees for the possession of that hotel this morning, and having that demand refused immediately entered suit to attain their end.

A gentleman from Lynchburg, Va., here to day, says that Mr. Hopkins, the knight of labor candidate elected to Congress in that district last fall, and the proprietor of a small dry goods store in Lynchburg, has failed in business and made an assignment, and this, too, though he has been in receipt of $5,000 a year ever since last March. Another instance of the well proved fact, that politics and legitimate business don't get along well together.

Gen. Mahons arrived here Monday night from Petersburg, but returned there yesterday. He came up on private business, and confined himself to that during his entire stay. Various attempts to interview him were made, but he evaded all of them; some quite facetiously, telling a reporter of one of the city papers that he was going to Boston to confer with Gen. Butler, and saying to another, who had informed him of Senator Voorhees' arrival, "when I must get out of here."

A general conference of all the evangelical churches in the United States will be held here during the second week of the coming December.

It is now pretty well assured that the site originally selected for the Catholic University will be abandoned. It is by no means certain that Mr. Hume's offer of a site on Arlington Heights will be accepted, though the committee to make the selection has not yet announced its determination. It is thought by some that the site will probably be near the President's country residence. Others think that after all the University will not be here, but in some other city, where greater inducements have been offered. It is understood the cost of the University will not be far from eight million dollars.

Mr. Lewis McKenzie, of Alexandria, was elected an honorary member of the Virginia republican association, colored, of this city, at the meeting of that association, held last night.

The prevailing impression here respecting Commissioner Oberly's recent opinion, that under the civil service law such members of democratic clubs and associations as hold federal offices are liable to punishment, is that it is correct, and that under that law no federal office holder is a freeman.

The offerings of bonds to the Government to-day up to 12 o'clock amounted to $1,414,850, of which $1,343,500 were 4 per cent, and $71,350 were 4 per cent.

Mr. A. H. H. Stuart, a member of the Filmore Cabinet, spent Tuesday night here, but left yesterday morning for his home in Staunton. He was accompanied by Mr. Robinson. The old gentleman is long past the allotted span of life, but he still looks hale and hearty.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The son of the Akhond of Swat has been badly whipped by Omra Khan.

A general conference of Evangelical Christians will be held in Washington, December 7th.

A secret conference of German Socialists, lasting three days, has been held at St. Gall, Switzerland.

Charles Milton Hendley, one of President Cleveland's clerks, was married in New York yesterday to Miss Bessie Robinson.

Dr. Parker, of London, delivered a eulogy on Rev. Henry Ward Beecher at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, last night.

C. Irving Ditty, formerly a prominent lawyer of Baltimore, died last Monday. He had been a sufferer for a long time from paralysis.

Dr. Chas. K. Koonce has been appointed resident physician of the Washington Asylum, vice Dr. C. M. Rawlins, resigned, to take effect November 1, 1887.

The District commissioners of Washington in their estimates have provided for 33,000 pupils in the public schools next year. At least six new school buildings will be put up to meet the increasing demand for school room.

A WOMAN VETERAN.—One of the most remarkable cases of concealment of sex has just been brought to light in Ohio. On September 26th application was made in Cincinnati to Col. L. A. Harris, by one of the trustees of the Dayton Soldiers' Home for the admission of a sick veteran to that institution. The soldier called Col. Harris' house and was given an application blank to be filled out. The veteran's name was Jas. Fisher. He had a letter from Col. Tafel, the Colonel of his regiment, which stated that Fisher had received an honorable discharge after two years' service in Company C, 6th Ohio Infantry. Fisher was ill and unable to provide for himself. Col. Harris gave him transportation on September 26th to Dayton, with a letter to Col. Patrick, superintendent of the home, requesting him to take care of the bearer until he could be provided for. The medical examination at Dayton revealed the fact that Fisher is a woman. Of course she was not received into the home, and no one knows where she now is. Very little is known of her history, except that she is fifty-nine years old. Ever since the war she has continued to dress like a man and live with those of that sex. In appearance Fisher is short, heavy set, with a round, smooth face, dark hair and eyes, is somewhat effeminate, but no one has ever suspected her sex. Col. Tafel says the woman was one of the bravest soldiers in his regiment. He was astonished to learn that Fisher is a woman.

WASHINGTON PRESBYTERY.—The regular semi annual session or fall meeting of Washington Presbytery was opened last night at the Westminster Presbyterian Church in that city. Rev. Dr. French, the retiring moderator, preached the opening sermon, at the conclusion of which the Presbytery was called to order and constituted with prayer. The roll was called and then the Presbytery proceeded to elect officers. The Rev. T. S. Hamlin, D. D., was unanimously elected moderator. Dr. French immediately giving way to his successor. Rev. Robert S. Fleming was re-elected temporary clerk.

The meeting of the Presbytery was continued to-day, commencing at 9 a. m., and will close this evening with a free conversation on the subject of religion—a report from each member on the condition of his charge.

SHIPYARD AT NEWPORT NEWS.—Mr. C. P. Huntington and Gen. W. C. Wickham visited Newport News yesterday for the purpose of considering the question of establishing a shipyard there, and it is stated that the enterprise will be started at an early day. It will involve the expenditure of large capital and give permanent employment to a large number of mechanics. It is proposed to equip a yard on a scale for the construction of four ocean steamers at one time. The work on the dry dock at the same place is progressing rapidly, and this enterprise of itself is one of the most extensive in the State.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Mr. Charles B. Rouse, a New York merchant, formerly of Winchester, has given $500 to the Shenandoah Valley Agricultural Society.

The residence of Carson Collins, near Winchester, was destroyed by an accidental fire Friday evening, with its contents. Loss $4,000; insured for $2,000.

The democrats will close the campaign in Richmond until after the primary with a rally to-night, after which Gov. Lee has promised to be present and speak.

Detective James has returned to Norfolk from Newark, N. J., with the white girl Mattie Johnson, charged with stealing $800 and attempting to murder Mrs. White, of Norfolk.

The democrats of Augusta county have nominated Edward Echols and John H. Crawford for the House of Delegates. Mr. Echols has represented Augusta in the House for five years past.

Emet, Hopkins & Stratton, dry goods merchants of Lynchburg, have made an assignment. The indebtedness and assets are unknown. Hopkins is the "labor" Congressman-elect from that district.

The farewell address of Gen. Lee to the Army of Northern Virginia is to be engraved on a banner 68 by 40 feet and displayed at a conspicuous point on the line of the march at the corner stone laying on the 27th of October, in Richmond.

Capt. Decker, of Rockbridge, was in Lynchburg on Monday, says the News, and attracted much notice by his long beard, which was measured and found to be three feet and three and a half inches in length. It is of fourteen years' growth.

D. B. Terrell, the leading "knight of labor" of Wythe county, will announce himself a candidate for the Legislature against Col. Crockett, democrat, and Porter, republican. Terrell, if elected, would not vote for Mahone for the United States Senate.

Last Friday morning about ten o'clock Mr. Robert Chevington, of Caroline county, was found dead in his house. A few moments before his death he was apparently in his usual good health. Heart disease is said to have been the cause of his death. He was about 63 years of age.

Under an act of incorporation, granted by the last Legislature, to build a steam tramway from Fredericksburg through Spotsylvania to the North Anna river, about thirty miles from Fredericksburg, a company, says the Star, of that place, has been organized, and is now engaged in arranging the preliminaries for the construction of said tramway.

Last night the southbound train of the Atlantic coast line brought into Richmond Jim Ferguson, a colored brakeman on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad, who was terribly mangled at Guilford station, where he fell between the cars while the train was in motion, and was run over, crushing his right leg and breaking his left above the knee.

The session at the University of Virginia has begun with a largely increased number of students, over three hundred having already matriculated and four hundred being expected. The increase in the medical department over last year is 40 per cent, making the number the largest since 1867-68. The law, the engineering and the academic schools show an increased attendance.

The "reformers" had a big rally and street parade in Richmond last night. The procession was composed entirely of whites. After the parade the procession marched to a hall where speaking was arranged to take place. Before reaching the building some one cut the gas off and the crowd was kept in the street until candles were procured and the hall lighted in that way.

MYSTERIOUS VOICE.—Sunday morning when Officer Henry, of the South Washington police station, went on "dog watch" at 6 o'clock persons living near Four and a half street and Maryland avenue called his attention to a noise in the large house on the corner, formerly the residence of Mary Hall, and now vacant except that some of the rooms are occupied only in the daytime by an association. The neighbors reported that they had heard the voice of a child in the house during the night, and that it had frequently called "mama" and "anthy." With the aid of a ladder the officer got over the high brick wall surrounding the premises and entered the house. Going to the upper floor he heard the voice below him plainly call "anthy." Walking down stairs he again heard it. This time "mama" was called, and looking through the key hole the officer saw, not a child, but a lonely parrot sitting on the back of a chair and plaintively calling as if to invite human companionship.

VIRGINIA POSTMASTERS APPOINTED.—The following were among the fourth-class postmasters appointed yesterday: Virginia—George R. Peyton, Alum Springs, Rockbridge county, vice Amos Fox, resigned; Charles H. Snidow, Kimballton, Giles county, vice Nellie A. Snidow, resigned; Chas. A. Koerner, Koerner's Store, Augusta county, vice W. R. Talley, resigned; F. F. Ross, Trapp, Loudoun county, vice Joseph H. Ross, deceased. West Virginia—W. A. Feely, Thomas, Tucker county, vice W. T. McGahan, resigned.

COURT OF APPEALS AT STAUNTON, Oct. 4.—Randolph vs. Longdale Iron Company, from Rockbridge, argued by E. Pendleton and George M. Cockran, jr., for appellant, and T. C. Elder and R. L. Parrish for appellees. The matter in controversy is a valuable iron ore bank in a tract of land bordering on Rockbridge, Bath and Alleghany counties. In an action of ejectment the Longdale Company vs. Randolph, judgment went for the Longdale Company in the Circuit Court of Rockbridge county.

THREE THINGS.—Three things strike me as to the representative of Alexandria in the Legislature. 1. If any citizen had a matter of interest to be managed in the General Assembly and was going to employ counsel to push it through, he would, if he had common sense, select the Alexandria who had with eminent ability as a lawyer more experience in the Legislature, wide acquaintance with its members and its rules and more influence than any other citizen. Isn't it wise for us to promote the affairs of the town and county in the same way we would promote our own affairs? 2. When an Alexandria of legitimate political ambition has mounted many rounds on the ladder of success, isn't he foolish if he jumps down to the bottom of the ladder again, when in consideration of continued service to them his fellow-citizens are willing to help him upward? 3. Is it not most gratifying to every good citizen that the primaries last night did not cost a cent to candidates, and that so far every body's hand is clean in this election?

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE:—The local item in Saturday's GAZETTE entitled "A Victim of Choral," unintentionally does injustice to the young men of this city and the Young Men's Christian Association. The facts are that the unfortunate victim was a stranger in our midst, and such was befriended by the association, but becoming discontented took this means to quiet himself, and got a little more than was good for him. Whilst we are always ready to befriend the friendless and strangers who come to our city, make them feel at home and if possible assist them in any laudable undertaking, we are careful not to encourage idleness in any form.

A. G. ULLER, President Y. M. C. A.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

A Murderous Madman.

EL PASO, Oct. 5.—News has reached here of an affray ten days ago at the Planchar de Plata mine, near Sabinit, State of Chihuahua, Mexico. An Irish miner named John Lloyd became crazed from a prolonged spree and conceived the notion that the Mexicans wanted to kill him. He procured a Winchester rifle and told a German teamster named Weiner that he was going to guard against his expected assailants. Weiner told a Mexican foreman named Rodriguez what Lloyd had said. Rodriguez threw up his rifle and shot Rodriguez dead. Weiner got a rifle and tried to shoot the infuriated man, but while he was maneuvering for a sure aim, Lloyd shot him through the thigh. Lloyd then took refuge in the office of the superintendent, who was away, and bade defiance to the camp. A courier, was despatched to a Mexican military camp a few miles away, for a detachment of soldiers. After arriving they dispersed them selves among the rocks and opened fire upon Lloyd's fortress. Lloyd replied for a time and then became silent. After firing a thousand shots the soldiers charged the building and found Lloyd hidden among a lot of boxes unharmed. He was taken to Casa Grandes.

More Tronble Brewing.

LXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 5.—News was received here last night that more trouble was brewing in Morehead, the scene of the recent Tolliver outrage. The report says: This morning 13 men, armed with Winchesters, came from Sellers station, on the Columbia and Ohio road, to Morehead. It is said there are or will be 150 men armed and secreted around the town. These men, it seems, belong to the Logan faction and are gathering because news has been brought that a party of Tolliver's friends intend to come from Elliott county and burn the town. Boone Logan is in Morehead, and it was he who ordered the assembling of the men. It is certain that messengers sent to bring in more men got on the train at Morehead to day, and that Allie W. Young boarded the train at Mount Sterling this morning and went to Morehead. Everybody feels that there is trouble of the very worst sort ahead.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—A diabolical attempt was made yesterday to wreck a passenger train on the Illinois and St. Louis railroad, about a mile and a half from Belleville, Ill. A special train of five cars filled with excursionists from St. Louis was approaching Belleville at the rate of 20 miles an hour, when the train rushed into an open switch nearly a mile long, and had gone half the length of the switch before the engineer could stop the train. A quarter of a mile further on the switch rail had been adjusted so as to plunge the train down a steep embankment. A frightful disaster was narrowly averted, as the occupants of the coaches were mostly women and children. Aug. Franz and Joe Gaebr, now in the county jail under indictment for taking out the spikes from a rail on the same road near this spot, have confessed their guilt, and claim that it was the result of a drunken debauch. The officers are satisfied that there are others associated with them. The people of Belleville and East St. Louis are terribly excited over this occurrence and threats of lynching are made.

Stage Robbed.

BOLLINGER, Tex., Oct. 5.—The Bollinger and San Angelo stage was again robbed Monday night about 8 miles out from this place by the same lone highwayman who held it up last Thursday night. He was recognized by his voice, his looks and his horse. He was not so successful in this as in the last. D. F. Gay, of this city, was relieved of $5 and the other party of a like amount. There were two ladies aboard, one of whom had over $45, but the bandit was too gallant to accept it, saying that he never took money from ladies. He then proceeded to go through the mail bags, opening every letter, but it is said, only got about $15 in all. He then moved up to meet the outgoing stage, and commanded the parties just robbed not to move until he fired his pistol. After waiting about an hour the stage pulled up, having eluded the robber by taking a new route.

The President's Trip.

GODFREY, Ill., Oct. 5.—The President's special train passed here at 12:30 last night. The excursionists were about retiring. They were all delighted with their entertainment in St. Louis.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The train bearing President Cleveland and wife pulled slowly into the Alton depot at 23rd street at 9:10 o'clock, a. m. There was a loud shout from the crowd, a buzz, then cheers as the distinguished pair walked across the platform to their carriage. A moment later the carriage door closed with a slam, the four spirited horses jumped as the whip circled over their heads, and the President was riding through the streets of Chicago. Several hundred persons had assembled at the depot to see the President and Mrs. Cleveland, and they were vociferously applauded as the carriage passed.

The Indian Troubles.

ST. PAUL, Minn., October 5, 1887.—The Pioneer Press has advices from Bel-Long, Montana, that the troops at the Crow agency are still awaiting orders from Washington. The Indians are still much excited and so determined to resist arrest the police have not dared to attempt it. The sheriff of Custer county will probably be called upon to execute the warrants with a posse. Gen. Dudley, in command at Fort Custer, said last night there would be no serious trouble. The old chiefs disclaim any connection with the affair and are jealous of the growing importance of Young Thunder and Lightning. The agent is blamed for being too hasty in attempting the arrest.

Suicide in a Court Room.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 5.—A thrilling tragedy was enacted in the Circuit Court room this morning. Sam. Branch, a colored man, was on trial for larceny. As the jury filed into the court room he was noticed to tremble and turn deathly pale. "What is your verdict," asked the judge. "Guilty of grand larceny," replied the foreman. "What is the sentence?" "Five years in the penitentiary." As these words were uttered by the foreman, Branch exclaimed, "God knows I'm innocent," and pulling a large knife from his pocket thrust it into his throat. The blood spurted over the jury box and judge's desk and the negro was dead in thirty minutes.

Nominations.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5.—At the judiciary convention of the democratic party to day the following nominations were made: Associate Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore, John U. Dennis; State's Attorney, Charles G. Kerr, renominated; Clerk of the City Court, H. A. Schultz; Sheriff, George May.

Sudden Death.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 5.—Ex-Governor William Washburn dropped dead on the platform at the City Hall at the morning session of the Board of Foreign Missions a little before 10 o'clock.

SKELETONS FOUND IN AN OLD WELL.

The skeletons of four human beings were found recently in an old well on what is known as the McCandless farm, not far from the outskirts of Point Pleasant, W. Va. A generation or more ago the farm was the site of a tavern much frequented by travelers coming up and down the river, and in years prior to the war there were many rumors about men missing after having put up at the old tavern for the night. No evidence of a criminal nature could be found against the proprietor of the place, and after living there twenty years he went away, no one knew where. The property has since the changed hands, and a week or so ago the proprietor sent a gang of men to work to clean out a well near where the old tavern stood. At the bottom of the well the workmen came upon a lot of bones, and these being taken to the surface and examined by a physician, were pronounced to be the remains of four men.

"Now it's all right, it's all right, darling," said Mrs. Workhard, I have tested this thoroughly. One bottle of Salvation Oil will cure your pain in the back, and only costs twenty-five cents."

THE NORTH OF ELY'S Cream Balm that I obtained of you last summer has entirely cured my little boy of a severe attack of catarrh.—Mrs. SALLIE DAVIS, Green Postoffice, Ala.
